

WINDOW #710A

Installed in 1967.

A spray of Dogwood, the floral emblem of the Province of British Columbia marking the Provincial Centenary 1866 -1966.

A spray of Dogwood blossom on a green background. Amber glass surrounds it in the shape of a cross. Above and below blue glass reflects the sky and the bounty of the sea.

WINDOW 710B

Installed in 1967.

A cross of white glass in a background of orange glass. In the background of amber glass is a cross surrounding the orange square. The base of blue glass represents water, carrying the theme of other windows.

In memorium Mabel L. Orman 1895 - 1967 life member, W.A. and commemorating the change in name of the W.A. to the A.C.W. in the Centennial year of the Province of BC 1866 - 1966.